CALL TO ORDER AND INTROSDUCTIONS
Mr. H. Benson Dendy III, Rector, called the meeting to order at 1:15 p.m. The public was able to view the open session of the meeting via livestream at https://mssvideo.vcu.edu/BOV.

H. Benson Dendy III welcomed two of the new Board members, Dr. Vernon Dale Jones and Dr. Clifton Peay, and thanked them for his willingness to serve on the Board of Visitors of Virginia Commonwealth University. He acknowledged Mr. Anthony Bedell and Ms. Ellen Fitzsimmons who also were appointed to the board, but were unable to attend the orientation. He highlighted that VCU’s unique mission as a public good is motivating and inspiring. VCU is a large, complex institution that benefits greatly from the expertise, experience and active engagement of board members. The board values different perspectives and proactive involvement in advancing the university’s mission and setting high standards for the university as well as values transparency in the work as a governing board.
Mr. Dendy recognized those in attendance in the room including the reporter from The Commonwealth Times.

CALL TO ORDER AND INTRODUCTIONS
President Rao welcomed the new board members. He began his remarks by stating that students and patients are the center of VCU’s mission, and everyone at VCU is committed to their success. VCU is modeling what a truly public research university and health system should be. VCU is focused on being nimble and adaptable to support the changing needs of its students and patients. This is a foundation that has consistently been built and fostered by a culture of unmatched commitment to students and patients. VCU enrolls about 28,000 students in more than 200 degree and certificate programs, including 29 that are unique in Virginia. Eighty-two percent of students are enrolled full-time. VCU conferred more than 7,800 degrees and certificates in the 2021-22 academic year. The university and health system employ more than 23,000 people (full and part time), and have an annual operating budget of $4.4 billion.

VCU is one of the nation’s premier urban public research universities. VCU graduate programs and first professional programs are consistently ranked among the top 50 nationally by U.S. News & World Report. VCU is one of the three top research universities in the Commonwealth. VCU’s annual economic and social impact report shows that VCU generates enormous economic impact, for the Commonwealth, the region, and the city of Richmond.

The people at VCU work hard every day to put the needs of students and patients first. VCU is dedicated to the true mission of public higher education: to create opportunities for every student who wants to earn a degree. A third of students are first generation, a third are also underrepresented minorities, and about a third also qualify for Pell grants.

BOARD MEMBER DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES
Ms. Karen Helderman, Executive Director of Audit and Compliance Services, gave a presentation with an overview of the Division of Audit and Compliance Services, including a review of the oversight role of the Board of Visitors. A copy of the presentation is attached hereto as Attachment A and is made a part hereof.

Ms. Stephanie Hamlett, Esq., University Counsel, introduced the role of university counsel. She highlighted legal duties that the board has including educational requirements. She explained what every board member must know about FOIA (Freedom of Information Act) including meetings being open to the public and records being accessible to the public. There are certain specific statutory exemptions that allow for a portion of a meeting to be closed. She emphasized that if three members are together it is considered a meeting and must be noticed at least three working days in advance of the meeting. Agenda materials must be available to public prior to meeting and minutes must be recorded and posted on VCU website. A copy of her presentation is attached hereto as Attachment B and is made a part hereof.
RELSATIONSHIP BETWEEN VCU & VCUHS
Ms. Hamlett continued by providing an overview of the relationship between the VCUHS Board of Directors and VCU Board of Visitors.

Enron Board Aided Collapse, Senate Panel Says

The members of Enron Corp.’s board of directors contributed to the firm’s collapse by failing to curb the Houston energy trader’s risky accounting tactics, approving conflicts of interest, and rubber-stamping enormous cash payouts to executives, according to a hardly-worried Senate report to be released today.

“The board witnessed numerous indications of questionable practices by Enron management over several years, but chose to ignore them to the detriment of Enron shareholders, employees, and business associates,” the report said.

Conflicts of Interest

VCU Board of Visitors Bylaws

ARTICLE IV CONFLICT OF INTEREST COMPLIANCE

Each member of the Board shall comply with state statutes regulating conflict of interest which may include filing an annual financial disclosure statement and completion of required conflict of interest training.
Conflicts of Interest

A Conflict of Interest (COI) occurs when outside interests or relationships (financial, personal, or other) create a risk that professional judgment or actions regarding university interests will be, or may appear to be, unduly influenced by a secondary or personal interest. Conflicts can occur in fact or appearance.

Some relevant state statutes:
● You shall not have a personal interest in a contract with VCU (2.2-3106 A.)
● You shall not have a personal interest in any contract with any other state agency unless the contract is competitively awarded (2.2-3106 B.)
Prohibited Conduct (Code of Va § 2.2-3103)

- Solicit or accept money or other thing of value for your Board services, except the expenses paid by VCU
- Offer or accept any money or other thing of value for or in consideration of:
  1. obtaining employment, appointment, or promotion of any person
  2. using your Board position to obtain a contract for any person or business
- Use for your own economic benefit or that of another party confidential information that you have acquired from your Board position and which is not available to the public
- Accept any money, loan, gift, favor, service, or business or professional opportunity that reasonably tends to influence you in the performance of your Board duties;
- Accept any business or professional opportunity when you know there is a reasonable likelihood that the opportunity is being afforded you to influence you in the performance of your official duties;
- Accept any honoraria for any appearance, speech, or article in which you provide expertise or opinions related to the performance of your Board duties
- Accept a gift from a person who has interests that may be substantially affected by your Board duties under circumstances where the timing and nature of the gift would cause a reasonable person to question your impartiality in the matter affecting the donor.
- Accept gifts on a basis so frequent as to raise an appearance of using your Board position for private gain.
- Use your Board position to retaliate or threaten to retaliate against any person for expressing views on matters of public concern or for exercising any right that is otherwise protected by law
Conflicts of Interest

- You are expected to disclose conflicts to protect you, to be compliant with Board bylaws and state statutes, and to protect VCU
- Conflicts are not inherently bad
- Disclosing potential conflicts, both in fact or appearance) early allows you to work with Chelsea, legal and others to assess and manage it and reduce risk
- VCU will be proactive with reminders when a Board topic may present conflicts
- You should complete the annual Ethics Council disclosure and report additional potential conflicts to Chelsea as they occur throughout the year.
Virginia Conflict of Interest and Ethics Advisory Council

- Annually file a financial disclosure between 1/1 and 2/1
- All disclosures are maintained on a public facing website
- Disclosure includes:
  - Businesses that compensate you (employment, officer payments)
  - Business interests with value in excess of $5,000
  - Real estate except your principal residence ($5,000)
  - Businesses you represent before any state agency where you were compensated ($5,000)

VA Freedom of Information Act (FOIA)

What Every BOV Member Absolutely Must Know About FOIA:

- All meetings must be open
- All records must be available to the public – the format or medium does not matter
Importance of Compliance

• BOV records have become a target of interest to:
  o Faculty & Students
  o Press
  o Alumni
  o General Assembly and Other Elected Officials

• Meetings not handled appropriately = Board actions could be challenged
• Negative publicity for the university
• Perceived violation of public trust
• Possible fines for deliberate actions
Meetings

• All meetings of public bodies must be open with public access
• There are certain specific statutory exemptions that allow for a portion of a meeting to be closed
• What is a meeting?
  o When three or more members are gathered, and o Public business is discussed
• It doesn’t have to be a “Meeting” to be a meeting (social events, unplanned conversation at coffee shop)
Requirement For A Legal Meeting

Meetings Must Be “Noticed”

• Three working days’ notice
• Posted in 4 specific public places
• Public has the right to attend

Agenda materials must be available to public prior to meeting

Minutes must be recorded and posted on VCU website
Meetings: What does this mean to me?

- Cocktail parties and golf games?

- Avoid discussion of Board or Board Committee business between three or more members
  - in person
  - telephone
  - internet chat or email
Electronic and Telephone Meetings

• Generally, meetings must be in person
• BOV members may call in but a quorum of the BOV must be physically present
• The notice required for telephone meetings is 3 working days –same as for other meetings.
• Very specific requirements exist for the notice that require details about the meeting to be known in advance. For example, the notice must include the remote locations that are open to the public and the electronic communication means by which members of the public may listen to or observe the meeting. Public access to remote locations is encouraged but not required.
• Consult with counsel prior to issuing the notice for electronic meeting
Electronic and Telephone Meetings
State of Emergency Exception

If the Governor has declared a State of Emergency in accordance with Va. Code § 44-146.17, a board may meet without a quorum in one location if:

1. The catastrophic nature of the declared emergency makes it impracticable or unsafe to assemble a quorum in a single location; and
2. The purpose of the meeting is to provide for the continuity of operations of the public body or the discharge of its lawful purposes, duties, and responsibilities

Additional notice, comment, and access requirements apply to these meetings
Closed Session

Common exemptions for closed sessions:
• Legal advice
• Discussion of contract negotiations
• Discussion of identifiable employees or applicants
• Discussion of identifiable students or student discipline matters
• Exemption specific to VCU/VCUH- §2.2-3711(A)(23)
Requirements for Closed Meeting

• Motion for closed session must include three elements: (i) citation to the statutory exception; (ii) general topic (e.g. personnel); (iii) specific matter to be discussed (e.g. evaluation of the President)

• Committee may discuss only matters identified in the motion to go into closed meeting – even if the subject would otherwise qualify for a closed meeting discussion

• Certification required after closed meeting

• Any action the BOV wishes to take as a result of discussion in closed session must be voted on in open session
Closed Meetings: What Does This Mean For Me?

- Remember the stated purpose of closed meetings, and do not stray from that discussion.
- Gently remind others if discussion strays.
- Cast a truthful certification vote.
- Legal counsel cannot play “FOIA cop” but should be relied upon for guidance.
Public Records

• All public records not subject to a specific exclusion/exception must be made available to the public upon request
• Public records - anything that records any public business
  - letters or other documents
  - handwritten notes
  - video/audio recordings
  - emails
  - text messages
• Location doesn’t matter (at the university, home, office, personal devices, etc.)
What is a “FOIA Request”?

• Any request from any eligible person (Virginia citizen or certain media)
• Does not have to be a written request – oral is fine
• Need not reference “FOIA”
• Five workdays to initially respond
• Can charge reasonable fees, but this rarely covers actual costs
• Report any records request immediately to the Rector and Board staff, even if you are not certain if it is a FOIA request
Records: What Does This Mean For Me?

• Be thoughtful about what you write in email, notes, memos
• Favor telephone over email if you have confidentiality concerns
• Use your official VCU email for VCU business; or keep all VCU business communications in a separate folder if you use a personal or business account
• Do not trash or delete official messages/documents - state law requires preservation of records for certain time periods
Records: What Does This Mean For Me?

• Expect that some communications will come to you from legal counsel to maintain confidentiality/privilege

• If you share a privileged communication with someone else, privilege may be lost – ask counsel before sharing

• If you need to communicate regarding a difficult issue via email, work with the Rector and copy legal counsel for review/advice
Email And Social Media Can Be A Record And A Meeting!

• Simultaneous e-mail or texting can easily result in discussion between “more than two members” = illegal meeting

• Social media interactions may result in a meeting (e.g. “liking” posts)

• Recommendation
  - Use the telephone when possible
  - Avoid e-mail to more than one member when possible
  - Never use REPLY ALL
